Current Interest rate: 4.05, guaranteed until 5/1/2023

All Scenarios Use Loan Amount $60,908 (loan balance 6/22)

TERM	AMORTIZATION PERIOD	INTEREST RATE*	MONTHLY PAYMENT	INTEREST RATE FIXED PERIOD	COMMENTS
10-Years	10-Years	5.75%	$620 +/-	N/A - Floating	Using WSJP +1.00 or 5.75% (as of today). This is an example of no changes occurring with the current loan agreement (rate changes to floating as of 5/1/2023, but not knowing what WSJP will be on that date, today's rate was used). I multiplied the amount of principal that is due w/next payment by 9 (months) to get an estimated principal balance at 5/1/2023. This is a rough balance since extra principal is paid from time to time. Extra principal payments would just make this payment example lower.
15-Years	15-Years	6.08%	$516 +/-	15-Years	This is if we can get it approved to extend the term
10-Years	10-Years	4.15%	$622 +/-	5-Years	This is using the 3.00 over the current CD Rate. Rate would then adjust to the then going 5-Year CD rate plus 3.00
10-Years	10-Years	5.64%	$666 +/-	5-Years	Same would happen w/this loan as current loan terms, the rate would go to a floating (WSJP + 1.00) after the 5-Year Fixed period

Quoted interest rates are subject to change daily

**All payments rounded up to the next dollar and could change if interest rate changes.

***After Fixed Rate period, interest rate would then be floating at WSJP + 1.00
